Gail Kirkwood – Practitioner

Jennifer Howey – Professional Development

Congratulations!

Department of Physical Therapy 2018 Exceptional Achievement Awards

Gail Kirkwood—Practitioner

Gail Kirkwood is a graduate of the Bachelor of Science program in Physical Therapy at U of T (1983). She is certified as a clinical specialist in paediatrics by the Physiotherapy Specialty Certification Board of Canada. Gail has spent the majority of her career doing rehabilitation with children and youth with cerebral palsy and acquired brain injury. She co-developed the ABI- CA outcome tool in conjunction with Dr. V. Wright and the assistance of graduate students from U of T. Gail recently retired from full time practice after 35 years but plans to continue to use her physio skills with part time involvement in research as well as coaching youth curling.

Jennifer Howey—Professional Development

Jennifer Howey, B.Sc(PT) is the owner of InsideOut Physiotherapy & Wellness Group. She thrives on life-long learning and growing the profession. Jennifer is an Adjunct Lecturer and provides a clinical site for the University of Toronto MScPT program. Jennifer developed the InsideOut Learn Series for professional education of new grads. She started the Nordic Pole Walking Rehabilitation Instructors Program in Canada and collaborated with Hong Kong Physiotherapy Association to bring the program to Hong Kong. She was a lead physical therapist on Team Medical for the 2015 PanAm/ Para PanAm Games. Jennifer has been featured in the CPA Leadership series and Ted talks. Above all, Jennifer loves practicing physiotherapy; encouraging her team, colleagues and patients to maximize their potential from the Inside Out.
