

Master of Science in Physical Therapy at U of T

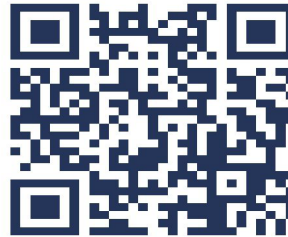

- professional master's degree
- fully accredited by PEAC
- 2-years to complete
- September start date
- full time registration
- 100% employment rate following graduation*

- 300+ clinical sites across the GTA
- world-renowned faculty
- access to extensive athletics and 1000+ clubs/groups
- culturally diverse

Contact Us

<https://www.physicaltherapy.utoronto.ca/>

416-946-3793
physther.facmed@utoronto.ca

Department of Physical Therapy
#160-500 University Avenue
Toronto, ON

*according to surveys conducted with our recent graduates

 <https://www.jobbank.gc.ca/market-report/occupation/18214/ON>

What is a Physical Therapist?

Physical therapists assess clients and create treatment plans to help people maintain, improve, or restore mobility and physical functioning.

Why Become a Physical Therapist?

- improve people's lives
- work with all ages
- work in multiple settings
- run your own business

Median Salary:

$42/hr

Job Prospects:

GOOD

Physical Therapy at the University of Toronto

What Will I Study?

- anatomy
- physiology
- musculoskeletal system
- neurological system
- cardiorespiratory system
- electrophysical agents
- exercise science
- pain science
- social, political, ethical and cultural dimensions of health/health care

How Will I Learn?

- 30 weeks of clinical internships
- lectures
- small-group work
- clinical skills labs
- anatomy labs
- community visits

