3. An email will be sent to your account with a link. Click the link and create your new username or password.
Where can I obtain an access code if I do not have one?

The access code may have been circulated to you by email from your local hospital organization, long-term care facility, professional association, or other source. Please follow-up with any of these organizations to obtain the access code.

What browser should I use to access the website and its resources?

We recommend you use the latest versions of Chrome (Desktop and Mobile), Firefox, Safari (Desktop and Mobile), and Edge. We do not recommend using Internet Explorer.

Please note:

- There are known compatibility issues with Internet Explorer 10 and below, Safari 7 and below.
- A mobile app is not available, however it is mobile responsive and can be accessed via web browser.
- Some of the learning materials contain audio. Please have a headset or your computer speakers turned on.

Why have I been automatically logged out of my account?

The system will automatically logout after some inactivity time for security purposes. Please login again.
